

Personal Finance Tracker

Description:

Develop a personal finance tracker application that helps users manage their income, expenses, and savings. Use modules and packages to organize different functionalities such as income management, expense tracking, and financial reporting.

Key Features:

- Track and manage income sources.
- Track and categorize expenses.
- Generate financial reports (e.g., monthly summary, expense categories).
- Use packages to modularize the application into income, expense, and report modules.